Preliminary Statement

1. On August 10, 2017, Segal was retained to represent the Retiree Committee, effective June 27, 2017. A copy of Segal’s engagement letter is attached hereto as Exhibit B. The Retiree Committee represents approximately 167,000 retired employees of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (“Commonwealth” or “Puerto Rico”) and various Commonwealth agencies and instrumentalities and their surviving beneficiaries, including Puerto Rico’s retired teachers, police officers, firefighters, judges, municipal clerks, engineers, and other government workers of all categories, who hold accrued pension benefits on account of having participated in the Employee Retirement System (the “ERS”), the Teachers Retirement System (the “TRS”), and/or the Judiciary Retirement System (the “JRS”), among other potential post-employment benefits (the “Retirees”). The pensions of the Retirees, along with those held by currently active employees who have participated in the ERS, TRS, and/or JRS, are collectively underfunded by at least $50 billion. The Retirees are the largest group of creditors in these title III cases.

2. During the Interim Period, Segal performed a variety of actuarial and consulting services that were necessary and appropriate for the efficient and economical resolution of the Retiree Committee's interests in the Title III Cases, including, among other things: responding to questions asked by independent experts hired by the Retiree Committee.

3. Segal's work during the Interim Period was necessary for, and beneficial to, the Retirees and served to ensure that the interests of the Retirees were properly represented and safeguarded in these Title III Cases. Segal is compensated on an hourly fee basis, plus reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses incurred by Segal.

Jurisdiction

4. The United States District Court for the District of Puerto Rico (the "Court") has subject matter jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to PROMESA section 306(a).

5. Venue is proper pursuant to PROMESA section 307(a).

6. Segal makes this Application pursuant to PROMESA sections 316 and 317, Bankruptcy Code sections 105(a) and 503(b), Bankruptcy Rule 2016, Local Rule 2016-1, the Retention Order, the Interim Compensation Order, and the UST Guidelines.

8. On May 5, 2017, the Puerto Rico Sales Tax Financing Corporation (“COFINA”), by and through the Oversight Board, as COFINA’s representative pursuant to PROMESA section 315(b), filed a petition with the Court under title III of PROMESA.

9. On May 21, 2017, the Puerto Rico Highways and Transportation Authority (“HTA”), by and through the Oversight Board, as HTA’s representative pursuant to PROMESA section 315(b), filed a petition with the Court under title III of PROMESA.

10. On May 21, 2017, the Employees Retirement System for the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (“ERS”), by and through the Oversight Board, as ERS’s representative pursuant to PROMESA section 315(b), filed a petition with the Court under title III of PROMESA.

11. On July 3, 2017, the Puerto Rico Electric Power Authority (“PREPA”), by and through the Oversight Board, as PREPA’s representative pursuant to PROMESA section 315(b), filed a petition with the Court under title III of PROMESA.

13. Through Orders of this Court, the Commonwealth, COFINA, HTA, ERS, PREPA, and PBA title III cases (collectively, the “Title III Cases”) are jointly administered for procedural purposes only, pursuant to PROMESA section 304(g) and Bankruptcy Rule 1015. [See Dkt. Nos. 242, 537, 1417, 8829.]

14. On June 15, 2017, U.S. Trustee, pursuant to section 1102(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, appointed the Retiree Committee, consisting of the following nine individuals: Blanca

Paniagua, Carmen Nuñez, José Marin,⁷ Juan Ortiz, Lydia Pelot, Marcos A. Lopez, (Retired) Judge Miguel Fabre, Milagros Acevedo, and Rosario Pacheco. [Dkt. No. 340.]

Segal's Retention and Fee Request

⁷ José Marin resigned from the Retiree Committee effective April 12, 2018.

⁸ In a chapter 11 case, a committee appointed under section 1102 of the Bankruptcy Code ordinarily would seek authority to employ counsel pursuant to section 328. Because PROMESA does not incorporate section 328 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Retiree Committee moved for approval of its Retention Application pursuant to sections 105(a) and 1103(a). See PROMESA § 301(a) (omitting Bankruptcy Code sections 327 and 328 from incorporation into PROMESA).

No. 670-2] and First Supplemental Declaration of Kim Nicholl In Support Of Application For Order Approving The Employment Of Segal Consulting [Dkt. 33. Segal will update such disclosures, as appropriate, if Segal becomes aware of relevant and material new information.

34. Segal performed the services for which it is seeking compensation on behalf of the Retiree Committee and not on behalf of any other committee, creditor, or other entity.

35. Segal has not received payment or promise of payment from any source other than the Commonwealth for services provided or to be provided in any capacity whatsoever in connection with the Title III Cases.

I. Fees and Expenses Incurred During Interim Period

A. Customary Billing Disclosures

36. Segal's hourly rates are set at a level designed to compensate Segal fairly for the work of its actuaries, consultants, and professionals and to cover fixed and routine expenses. The hourly rates and corresponding rate structure utilized by Segal in the Title III Cases are equivalent to the hourly rates and corresponding rate structure used by Segal for similar complex actuarial consulting assignments, regardless of whether a fee application is required. The rates and rate structure reflect that such complex matters typically are national in scope and typically involve great complexity, high stakes, and intense time pressures.

37. Exhibit D to this Application is a summary of blended hourly rates for professionals for which Segal is seeking hourly compensation in this Application, as required by the UST Guidelines.

B. Fees Incurred During Interim Period

38. In the ordinary course of Segal's practice, Segal maintains records of the time spent on the professional services provided to the Retiree Committee. Exhibit E to this Application is a summary of fees incurred and hours worked during the Interim Period for which compensation is sought on an hourly basis in this Application, setting forth the following information:

- the name of each actuary, consultant, and professional for whose work compensation is sought;
- the aggregate time worked and fees billed by each actuary, consultant, and professional during the Interim Period;
- the hourly billing rate for each such actuary, consultant, and professional at Segal's current billing rates; and
- a calculation of total compensation requested using the rates disclosed in the Segal Application.

C. Expenses Incurred During Interim Period

39. In the ordinary course of Segal's practice, Segal maintains a record of expenses incurred in rendering professional services to the Retiree Committee and for which reimbursement is sought. As reflected in Exhibit F to this Application, Segal is not seeking reimbursement of expenses during the Interim Period.

II. Summary of Professional Services Provided During the Interim Period

40. During the Interim Period, Segal provided important professional and actuarial services to the Retiree Committee in connection with the Title III Cases. IV. Segal's Requested Compensation Should Be Allowed

52. The services for which Segal seeks compensation in this Application were, at the time provided, necessary for and beneficial to the Retiree Committee. Segal performed these services economically, effectively, and efficiently, and they benefited the Retiree Committee. Segal submits that the compensation requested is reasonable in light of the nature, extent, and value of such services to the Retiree Committee. Accordingly, Segal submits the compensation sought in this Application is warranted and should be approved.

A. Compensation under Sections 316 and 317 of PROMESA

53. Section 317 of PROMESA authorizes interim compensation of professionals and incorporates the substantive standards of section 316 of PROMESA to govern the Court's award of interim compensation. Section 316 of PROMESA provides that a court may award a professional employed under section 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code "reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered," and "reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses." 48 U.S.C. § 2176(a)(1), (2). Section 316(c) sets forth the criteria for such an award:

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded to a professional person, the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including—

- (1) the time spent on such services;
- (2) the rates charged for such services;
- (3) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this chapter;

(4) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;

(5) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the restructuring field; and

(6) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this subchapter or Title 11.

48 U.S.C. § 2176(c).

54. As analyzed below, Segal submits the elements governing awards of compensation under PROMESA justify the allowance requested.

1. The Time and Labor Required

55. During the Interim Period, Segal's actuaries, consultants, and professionals spent 260.00 hours providing professional services to the Retiree Committee for which Segal seeks compensation on an hourly basis. Segal required this amount of time to conduct its actuarial analyses arising from the Title III Cases and the other tasks described herein.

2. The Rates Charged for Such Services

56. During the Interim Period, Segal's hourly billing rates ranged from $590.00 per hour to $750.00 per hour for Senior Vice President. Segal's hourly billing rates ranged from $520.00 to $520.00 for VP & Actuary, and from $430.00 to $490.00 for Actuaries. Segal's hourly billing rates ranged from $280.00 to $310.00 for Analyst. Based on the recorded hours expended by Segal's actuaries, consultants, and professionals, the average hourly billing rate for Segal's services was $540.16.

57. Segal's hourly rates are set at a level designed to compensate Segal fairly for the work of its actuaries, consultants, and professionals and to cover certain fixed and routine overhead expenses. Hourly rates vary with the experience and seniority of the individuals assigned. These hourly rates are subject to periodic adjustments to reflect economic and other conditions and are consistent with the rates charged elsewhere.

58. The hourly rates and corresponding rate structure that Segal charges in these cases are equivalent to or less than the hourly rates and corresponding rate structure that Segal charges for similar complex actuarial consulting assignments, regardless of whether a fee application is required.

3. The Necessity of the Services and the Benefit to the Estate

59. As described herein, the services rendered by Segal were necessary for the efficient and economical resolution of the Retiree Committee's interests in the Title III Cases. All of those services directly benefitted the Retiree Committee.

60. The Retiree Committee has reviewed the Application and has approved the compensation and reimbursement of expenses requested herein.

4. The Reasonableness of the Time Spent, Based on the Complexity, Importance, Nature of the Issues

61. Segal's work involved the representation of the Title III Cases' largest creditor constituency—Puerto Rico's approximately 167,000 retired teachers, police officers, firefighters, judges, municipal clerks, engineers, and other government workers of all categories—and Segal's professional services during the Interim Period were necessary to ensure that the interests of the Retirees were properly represented and safeguarded and that all matters relevant to the Retiree Committee were handled in an appropriate manner. The compensation requested is reasonable in light of those services.

5. The Experience, Reputation, and Ability of the Actuaries and Consultants Providing Services

62. Segal actuaries and consultants have achieved a high degree of expertise and positive reputations in their respective fields. Segal's Public Plan actuaries and consultants frequently receive recognition for their skill and achievements, and Segal is frequently cited as one of the leading actuarial consulting firms in this field.

6. Customary Compensation

63. The work for which Segal seeks compensation in this Application is of the type and nature for which Segal customarily would seek compensation at the rates identified in this Application. In addition, the compensation Segal seeks in this Application is comparable to the compensation it would have sought for comparable work outside of a Title III case.

64. Segal submits that the compensation requested is reasonable under all the factors considered under sections 316 and 317 of PROMESA and that the factors justify the allowance in full of Segal's compensation and reimbursement request.

65. In view of the foregoing, Segal respectfully requests that it be allowed interim compensation in the amount of $140,441.00 for services rendered during the Interim Period.

B. Reasonable and Necessary Expenses Incurred in Providing Services to the Retiree Committee.

66. For the Interim Period, Segal requests reimbursement of $0.00 for reasonable and necessary costs and expenses incurred on behalf of the Retiree Committee.

V. Statement by Segal Under ¶ C(5) of the UST Guidelines

67. None of the professionals included in this Application varied their hourly rate based on the geographic location of the Title III Cases.

68. The Application does not include time or fees related to reviewing or revising time records or preparing, reviewing, or revising invoices.

69. The Application does not include time or fees for reviewing time records to redact any privileged or other confidential information.

70. The hourly rates specified in the Retention Application were effective January 1, 2017, and have increased for certain professionals effective January 1, 2018, January 1, 2019, January 1, 2020, and January 1, 2021. Segal's engagement letter with the Retiree Committee provides that Segal's scheduled hourly rates are periodically adjusted, generally at the beginning of a calendar year.

71. Consistent with the UST Guidelines and the Fee Examiner Memorandum Segal submits monthly budgets to the Fee Examiner beginning January 2018.

Reservation of Rights and Notice

72. It is possible that some professional time expended or expenses incurred during the Interim Period are not reflected in the Application. Segal reserves the right to include such amounts in future fee applications.

73. Pursuant to the Interim Compensation Order, the Retiree Committee has provided notice of this Application to: (a) the U.S. Trustee; (b) counsel to the Oversight Board; (c) counsel to the Puerto Rico Fiscal Agency and Financial Advisory Authority; (d) counsel to the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors; (e) the Fee Examiner; and (f) all parties that have filed a notice of appearance with the Clerk of this Court, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 and applicable provisions of the Local Rules, and requested such notice.

No Prior Request

74. No prior application for the relief requested by this Application has been made to this or any other court.

WHEREFORE, Segal respectfully requests that the Court enter an order: (a) awarding Segal compensation for actuarial, consulting, and professional services provided during the Interim Period in the amount of $140,441.00; and (b) granting such other relief as is appropriate under the circumstances.
